

FAQs

1. How to submit your project in IRIS?
To submit your project, register at <https://irisnationalfair.org/registration>
2. What is the submission deadline for IRIS 2021 project submission?
IRIS 2021 submission will be closed by midnight of 31st October 2021
3. How many projects can I submit?
Participant can submit as many project as he/she want.
4. Can I register for two projects of same category?
Participant can submit multiple projects in one or multiple subject category.
5. How many participants can be there in a Team Project?
There can be a maximum of 2 participants in a Team project
6. How can I add a team partner during submission?
During submission, you will be asked 'Is this a Team project?'. Choose 'Yes' and system will ask you to enter your partner's email id. Please note that your partner needs to be registered with IRIS in order to be a partner to your project.
7. I want to edit my project I submitted online. How and where I can do it?
Once you submit your project, you have an option to edit it till the time submissions are open. You can find the edit button next to your project displaying in IRIS Dashboard.
8. Can I submit a project which has already been displayed at other science competition?
Yes; you can submit a project which you have submitted to other science fair or viceversa.
9. How old research can I submit in IRIS?
As per international guidelines, your project research/experiment data collection cannot be more than 12-month older than international submission acceptance which happens in May the following year.
10. Can I get my project reviewed before I submit it for IRIS 2021?
IRIS never do unofficial review of the projects before official evaluation meet of submissions which happens in November.
11. Can I change subject category of my project post submission?
Once the submissions for a particular year are closed, change in subject category request will be taken after receiving official email from participant and IRIS SRC approval.
12. Can I work on animals/ human subject during experimentation?
Please visit IRIS Rules & Guidelines section for queries <https://irisnationalfair.org/guidelines>
13. Whom should I write for any submission/registration related query?
You can email at contact@irisnationalfair.org
14. Where can I get reference of past IRIS projects?
Please visit showcase on IRIS website - <https://irisnationalfair.org/projects>
15. Is it necessary to create a prototype for my project?
It is not necessary to create a prototype of your project in IRIS. If your idea is novel, your hypothesis is correct and your research work is authentic, you can make your space among next IRIS Team India to ISEF.
16. What if my 2 projects get shortlisted for IRIS National Fair?
In that case you will be given a choice to select one project you would like to continue with for National Fair showcase. A participant cannot represent 2 projects in the National Fair.
17. What are the submission requirement for IRIS 2021 –
 - Participant has to answer below mandatory questions related to their project in detail:
 - a) Introduction & Objective
 - b) Innovation
 - c) Methodology
 - d) Results and conclusions
 - e) Acknowledgement and reference links
 - Participants can attach their scientific report or more details related to their work on the portal
 - Participants have to submit a short video explaining their project which will be key focus of Judges during project review. For more guidelines visit submission dashboard.